SMALL HANDY CATTLE

are selected to provide the beef for this market. That means smaller bones and tender meat. It also means less bone for you to pay for and better meat on your table. Try a roast and compare it with the big boned, coarse stuff you have been eating. That will be a lesson in meat buying you'll thank us for.

Municipal Nominations Ne t

Monday

The nominations to fill the municipal offices for next year take place on Monday next at the city hall, but as yet the citizens have evinced very little interest in this important matter.

Mayor Angus will comply with the wishes of the petitioners, and will stand for re-election for a third term. Add. Gohard, who served on the Council for four years, has announced that he will oppose Mayor Angus.

The three aldermen to retire are Ald. Boyer, Gohard and Dr. Johnson, while Ald. Compton, J. P. Johnson and S.H. Pamman retain their chairs for another term.

Messrs. D. MacEachern, J. F. Ellis and Dr. Stevenson retire automatically from the public school board. Mr. Ellis will not be a candidate for re-election, but the other two members may consent to accept the nomination. The other members on the board are Messrs. R.W. Manley and W.H. Odell.

The members of the Separate School Board are Messrs A.G. Gross, J.W. Herie, F.W. Miquelon, J.D. Cowan and J.J. Christopher. The first three members retire this year.

OBITUARY

FLORENCE M. PATON

The citizens were shocked on Saturday last to learn that Florence M. Paton had expired at the hospital, shortly after undergoing an operation for peritonitis. She was in her seventeenth year, and was a very popular young lady. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon at the residence of R.L. Randolph. Service was held in the Methodist Church, in which the singing was led by a choir of thirty school friends. The remains were laid away in the Wetaskiwin cemetery.

LEE JORDAN

Another old-timer of the district passed away on Thursday last week in the person of Mr. Lee Jordan, who had been ill for about three weeks with heart trouble. He was born in Iowa 34 years ago, where he resided until 1899 when he moved to Oklahoma, where he remained seven years, and about ten years ago he moved to the Lewistown district. Some four years ago he came with his family to the city, and took a residence on Beatrice Street. He leaves a sorrowing widow and three daughters, Mrs. R.A. Parker, of the Lewistown district, Fanny of Edmonton and Erma at home, and three brothers in Iowa, two of whom attended the funeral, and a sister in Kansas. The Masonic Order had charge of the funeral arrangements. Service was held in the Methodist Church, and the remains were laid away in the Wetaskiwin cemetery.

Women's Relief Corps

The business meeting of the Women's Relief Corps was held in their rooms on Wednesday, Nov. 29.

At this meeting it was decided to send $10 per month to the Belgian Relief Fund. It was also decided to send $200 to the Red Cross Society, Edmonton.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. West and Mr. Noble for the card parties given at their homes, in aid of the Red Cross.

A couple of boxes of work were sent to Edmonton containing the following:

45 many-tailed bandages
12 straight bandages
6 service shirts
6 bed jackets
6 surgical shirts

A hazard and afternoon tea will be held in Mrs. Girling's Hall, on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 2, at 3 o'clock.

The annual meeting of Rural Municipality of McGeorge was held on Friday afternoon last in Angus Theatre. The attendance was small and very little interest was taken in the proceedings. After the secretary read the financial statement and the councillors had given an account of their stewardship, E.H. Malcolm, of the Hail Insurance Board, gave an excellent address.

An accident took place at the railway crossing on Pearce street Saturday night last, which might easily have proven fatal. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Newell were crossing the track, their auto was struck by a freight car and shoved nearly one hundred feet along the track before it could be stopped. Fortunately Mr. and Mrs. Newell jumped and escaped with only a few bruises, but the auto was very badly wrecked.

There is no question about the Indians of the Hobbema agency, and their sympathy with the Patriotic Fund. A few days ago Chief Samson and his band forwarded the sum of $41.15 as a donation to the Patriotic Fund. It may not be generally known that at the commencement of the war, this same band gave $1,000.00 to the Patriotic Fund, and it is expected that other contributions will be received shortly.

Mr. W.W. Seimes, General Agt. and Mr. Z.W. Dean, inspector for The Hartford Fire Insurance Company, spent Saturday in town on business with J.P. Johnson, who represents the Company here. Both are well pleased at the results being obtained by this most reliable agent. The Hartford, being one of the very oldest, strongest and most reliable Companies on the continent, deserves the confidence of the insuring public.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Volkins and Mrs. Mary Ed. Volkins have returned to the Lewistown district for fourteen years, left on Tuesday morning for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will make their future home, in the hope that the change of climate will prove beneficial to Mr. Volkins' health. Owing to the shortness of time, it was impossible for this estimable family to bid their host of friends Good-Bye so they desire to do so through the columns of The Times. Their many friends here join in wishing them a safe journey and hope some future time to again welcome them to this district.

'The Rosary'

Telling a story through which runs a virile religious sentiment that is heart-gripping, and yet is not of the nature to bring offense. "The Rosary," the play of Edward E. Rose's which proved such a big success last season, is repeating this year with added brilliancy. While the central figure is that of a Catholic priest, the character is so drawn that the question of sectarianism is not in any way involved. Rev. Brian Kelley is presented as a man of God, whose greatest thought is the good he can do for his fellow-man of whatever creed or of no creed, and Francis Treason, who fills the character, seems to have caught the author's inspiration, in his conception of the role as the audience at the Angus will see when the production is presented next Monday, Dec. 4th. He appeared before a Wetaskiwin audience on two previous occasions in the same role.

A couple of plain clothes men from the liquor license department were in the city several days of the past week, and searched a few premises where it was thought liquor might be found, in violation of the act. The only person summoned however was A. Futeau, who was called upon to explain how a flash found its way into his garage. As no evidence was adduced to prove that the accused had violated the law, the case was dismissed by A.S. Rosenroth, J.P., before whom the hearing took place.

Wetaskiwin Poultry Show

The first exhibition under the auspices of the Wetaskiwin Poultry Association took place this week and proved to be even more successful than the members had hoped for. Over three hundred birds were on exhibition, which nicely filled the Empress Theatre building and the major part of the exhibit came from the Wetaskiwin district. It was a disappointment to many that the birds, which were promised from Saskatchewan did not arrive, but this did not mar the success as the local birds are as good as the best to be found anywhere. In addition to the poultry the well displayed exhibits of the Royal Meat Market and the Wetaskiwin Meat Market, which comprised dressed fowl and meats of all kinds, created a great deal of attention and favorable comment.

On Wednesday and Thursday evenings demonstrations of killing and dressing poultry were given, and as a result of this, it is hoped that most of the poultry will hereafter be brought to the market in better condition.

BIG GAME IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

(1) A herd of caribou.
(2) Mountain goat near Cliff.
(3) Fine black bear.

OWING to its immense areas of forest and mountain, British Columbia has remained a stronghold for the wilder forms of big game, which at one time were fairly numerous also in Wyoming and Montana, but which have practically disappeared in the United States, owing to the advance of settlement and insufficient game protection. The heavy snowfall which makes the ten-thousand-foot-high peaks inaccessible in winter is the natural refuge of the grizzly bear, the mountain sheep and the mountain goat—poets and heads of which are three of the most prized trophies of the big game hunter, while in the untrodden forests of the Kootenay and the Cassiar districts the great antlered moose—the last surviving of the prehistoric giants—ranges undisturbed except for the bolder spirits who with pack bears and canoe and guide come upon him unawares.

The moose of British Columbia are claimed as being the largest in North America. They are especially numerous in the northern interior of the province; they have a particular liking for the banks of the Stikine and Klondike rivers. Excellent hunting can be had in the vicinity of Atlin, and also of Cassiar, north east of Hazelton. As the moose was protected in the Kootenay district for a time, the animal is again becoming numerous there. Hunting the moose is one of the most attractive of sports, and happy is the hunter who succeeds in shooting one of these antlered monarchs of the forest.

Not less fascinating than the moose is the caribou, of which there are two varieties, the woodland and the barren ground caribou. The caribou develops to its greatest size at Cassiar. Not long ago an entry from this place won the gold medal at an exhibition in Vienna, Glader, Athol, and the Kootenay Central Railroad.

Revelstoke, and Cranbrook are good points from which to start in search of caribou. Hunting districts in Lillooet can be reached from Ashcroft and Lytton.

Columbia or coast deer are found all along the west coast of British Columbia as far east as the Cascade Range and all through the Crowns Nest Pass. British Columbia has an increasing number of mule deer. A deer of this variety also got a gold medal prize at the Vienna exhibition.

These deer are found over the whole of the interior of the province, but there are some spots which are more congenial to them than others; they are most plentiful in the Lillooet district. White tailed deer abound in the Kootenay.

The high, rocky mountain sheep makes its home in the fastnesses of the Canadian Pacific Rocky Mountains. A bighorn is counted upon as one of the most valued prizes a hunter can obtain, for it is very difficult to get with shooting range. The bighorn is of a suspicious, timid nature, and can travel few minutes as a hunter can go in two hours. Bighorns say that the horns of the bighorn is the most delicious of the world's game, as the horns make a beautiful ornament. The best ground for hunting the bighorn is that portion of the Lillooet district roughly described as being north and south of the bridge at Chilcotin River and east and west of the Fraser River at Chilco Lake. The town of Lillooet is reached by stage from Lytton, Clinton or Ashcroft. Michel and Golden are good points from which to reach the Kootenay sheep country. The Cassiar country is easy of access.

Amongst the giant peaks of the Rockies we find the home of the Rocky Mountain goat. He is clad in a coat of soft fluffy white, is fast and fearless in his motions, and can travel fleetly over precipices where man could not attempt to climb. As a fighter the goat is wonderfully brave and can use his sharp horns to great advantage for himself and destruction for the dog that faces him.

The sportsman visitor to British Columbia will find a delightful climate and general environs which will appeal favorably to him. Guides can be easily procured.

The Canadian Pacific Railway gives a splendid service to the most convenient starting and outfitting point. The game is protected by excellent laws, and the guides, who are expert packers, are themselves keen sportsmen and familiar with the haunts of the animals they help to hunt.

In addition to the game already mentioned the hunter in British Columbia may chance to have a shot at porcupine, elk, wildcat, antelope or wolf.

What A Pity

Germany, having demonstrated one new way for crossing the Atlantic, is said to be ready to demonstrate another. This time it will be a giant airship, with fuel and other supplies for a seven-thousand mile trip, that will attempt the crossing. What a pity that the acknowledged genius and daring of a great nation could not be devoted exclusively to the pursuits of peace.

ANOTHER WOMAN TELLS

How Vinol Made Her Strong
Beauregard, Ohio.—"I wish all nervous, weak, run-down women could have Vinol. I was so run-down, weak and nervous I could not sleep. Everything I ate hurt me, and the medicine I had taken did me no good. I decided to try Vinol, and before long I could eat anything I wanted and could sleep all night. Now I am well and strong, and in better health than I have been for years. I am ANNA MILLAR, Beauregard, Ohio.

We guarantee Vinol for all run-down, weak and debilitated conditions. Write for a free trial bottle.

Moose in Northern Ontario

(1) Moose Hunting Party in Camp. (2) A Trophy. (3) Calling the Moose.

THOUGH perhaps not so famous for its big game as British Columbia or New Brunswick, Ontario possesses many valuable wild animals, which the hunter loves to pursue in the fall and early winter. None of the game of this province is more interesting than the moose. He is to be found in many haunts, but his favorite resorts seem to be in the "Timagami" district, near Deseronto, Blain, Mississauga, and White River, and is often to be seen in the region stretching from Fort William to Vabgon Lake.

This season the hunters in Northern Ontario are sure to have an exceptionally good time, for the great forest fires that have recently occurred there have driven the big game from their secure homes in the recesses of the vast woods, and now they are forced to shelter themselves under smaller cover. Furthermore, the season has been extended from November 15 to the end of the month.

Not long ago, the delightful sport of hunting big game was confined to the moose, but now it is also in hand out on the hunting grounds, and often the hunter is lucky as that of some of the members of the sterner sex. Just as there is something of an accomplishment about a skilled fisherman, there is also something of an accomplishment about a competent moose hunter.

There are two methods of hunting the moose—the "calling" and the "still hunting." The "calling" is done early in the season, and in the cold weather the "still hunting" is adopted. The details of these methods, and particulars as to how the moose feed "down wind" and how the hunters pursue their prey "up wind" should be learned by many novices in the bracing and healthful atmosphere of the woods of Northern Ontario during the present hunting season.

That 89 per cent of all outstanding indebtedness will be collected by wholesalers this fall, that general business conditions continue on the upgrade, and that there is an optimistic feeling everywhere in business circles, is the gist of the Data, and company weekly resume of conditions for this province, as gotten out by the Calgary office of that concern.

Gin Pills

FOR THE KIDNEYS

From all parts of the world we receive words of praise for Gin Pills as the great remedy for kidney troubles. The following is from Jamaica where Gin Pills enjoy a very large sale.

"I was a clerk in a store in Jamaica but had to give up my position on account of kidney trouble. I purchased one box of Gin Pills from a local Druggist and before I was all finished I was entirely better and able to return to my work. I recommended them to a friend who was also in a similar condition and he tried them with the same good result.

I may tell you I tried many remedies in Jamaica before I got your Gin Pills.

Yours very truly,

Thomas Price, Dog Walk, Jamaica."

If you suffer from backache, swollen joints, constant headaches, rheumatism, stiffness and back pain due to kidney trouble, write for a sample. Or buy a box from your druggist—50c. a box, 6 boxes for $2.50.

MRS. SLACK'S LETTER

To Mothers of Delicate Children

Palmyra, Pa.—"My little girl had a chronic cough and was so thin you could count her ribs, and she had no appetite. Nothing we gave her seemed to help her, until one day Mrs. Nelson asked me to try Vinol, and now she is hungry all the time, her cough is gone, she is stouter and has a more healthy color. I wish every mother who has a delicate child would try Vinol."—Mrs. ALMA SLACK. We guarantee Vinol, our non-sweat tonic, to make delicate children healthy and strong.

Had Severe Cold

ON HER LUNGS.

RAISED PHEGM AND BLOOD.

Never neglect what at first seems to be but a slight cold. You think perhaps you are strong enough to fight it off, but colds are not so easily fought off in this northern climate, and if they are not attended to at once will sooner or later develop into some serious lung trouble such as bronchitis, pneumonia, and perhaps that dreadful disease, consumption.

Miss Kaye McDonald, Sydney Mines, N.S., writes: "Last winter I contracted a severe cold, and it settled on my lungs. I would cough and raise phlegm and blood. I had the cough for a month, and had medicine from the doctor, but it did not seem to do me any good. I really thought I had consumption.

My friends advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, which I did, and it gave me great relief. I am very glad I used Dr. Wood's, and would recommend it to every one."

You can procure Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup from any druggist or dealer, but be sure and get "Dr. Wood's," when you ask for it as there are a number of imitations on the market, which some dealers may try to palm off on you as the genuine.

See that it is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees is the trade mark, 25c, and 50c.

Had Weak and Dizzy Spells.

WAS CURED BY MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

Mrs. J. S. Nicholls, Listowel, Ont., writes: "I was weak and run down, my heart would palpitate, and I would have weak and dizzy spells. A friend advised me to take your Heart and Nerve Pills, so I started at once, and found that I felt much stronger, and my heart was ever so much better in a short time. I cannot praise your medicine too highly, as it has done me a world of good. My husband has been bothered with heart trouble ever since childhood, and finds quick relief by using your valuable pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been on the market for the past twenty-five years, and are universally known as the very best remedy for all troubles arising from the heart or nerves.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 20c. per box, 3 boxes for $1.50, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. M. L. Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
